2. Discussion on Party in the Park 2026:

We're all set – finalizing Family Olympic events.

Sponsorship Letter have been sent.

Princesses and Superheroes we have been in contact with District 230's drama clubs.

Still waiting to receive confirmation. We did reach out to the Fantasy Costumes, it is less expensive to purchase the costumes then renting them.

3. Discussion on Upcoming Events:

a.) 2026 Movies on the Green

First one Friday, May 22nd at 8:15PM

We will have a Food Truck and we are working on getting different ones for each event. Our second Movie is the day before we start Party in the Park.

b.) National Night Out (8/4/26)

Recreation will be helping the Police Dept. we've been in contact with a few vendors who would like to join in this event (Chiro One has confirmed along with the Lions Club). We have gone to the Creamery, Walmart, and the Recruiting Offices.

Danny created a flyer and logo for staff shirts.

c.) Winter Wonderland (12/5/26)

We are still in the beginning stages and will start really planning once Party in the Park is over. The Tree Decorating will be advertised in the Fall Catalog.

d.) Additional Carriage for Santa Comes to Town will cost $1,300 and they have a white carriage as well; this year's company name is Candlelight Carriages. Last year's carriage was $1,600.

4.) Other – Miscellaneous:

Committee mentioned Sponsorship Letters and noted possibly going in person to specific sponsors. It was noted staff has been reaching out on a personal level to get sponsors. It was asked if the two dispensaries have been contacted to help with sponsorships. Staff noted yes, we can reach out to them to see what type of sponsorship they are willing to do.

5.) A motion to adjourn at [8:00] o'clock p.m.
